At Least It Was Here
The 88

First tab, lets see how it goes. You can play A/C# and E/B as A and E respectively, but this way they follow the bass line of the song. Have fun!

A6    : x02222
A7    : x02223
A/C#  : x42220
E/B   : x22100
Emaj7 : 021100

[Intro]

A | A6 | A7 | A6

[Verse 1]
            A
Give me your hands
            A6
Show me the door
        A7
I cannot stand
        A6
To wait anymore
        A
Somebody said
            A6
Be what you ll be
            A7              A6            A
We could be old and cold and dead on the sea
D               A/C#            E/B         Emaj7
But I love you more than words can say
D                 A/C#          A           A
I can t count the reasons I should stay

[Verse 2]
(same as verse 2)

Give me some rope
Tie me to dream
Give me the hope
To run out of steam
Somebody said
It could be here
We could be roped up, tied up, dead in a year
I can t count the reasons I should stay

One by one they all just fade away

[Bridge]

                    G                 D
I m tired of the  wait and see s
                    A                 A
I m tired of that part of me
                    G                 D
That makes up a    perfect lie
                    A                 A
To keep us          between
                    G                 D
But hours turn      into days
                    A                 A
So watch what you throw away
                    G                 D
And be here to     recognize
                    E                 E
There s            another way

[Instrumental]

A | A6 | A7 | A6
A | A6 | A7 | A6

[Verse 3]
(same as verse 1)

Give me some rope
Tie me to dream
Give me the hope
To run out of steam
Somebody said
It could be here
We could be roped up, tied up, dead in a year
Oh, I love you more than words can say
I can t count the reasons I should stay

D                 A/C#            E/B          E
One by one they all just fade away
D                 A/C#                     A        A
But I love you more than words can say

[Outro]

A | A6 | A7 | A6
A | A6 | A7 | A6
