And I don't understand, why it has to be reversed

Maybe it's your plan, to bring better from the worse

Well, I'm not running away,
Em A G
I stand right here while you shake me

D
I don't know why I always fought it
A
I tried on my own till I get so lost, Oh
G Em
Sometimes I need you to collide

All of the walls that I built are falling
I'm in the open my heart's unguarded
G Em
This is the way you bring me to life
G Em
Sometimes I need you to collide

You use an avalanche to show me that your greater
