

Falling Into Place
The Afters

FALLING INTO PLACE " The Afters

Tabbed by: Kengus

This is one way you could do it, or, you could try capo on 2nd. I not sure every single chord is 100%, might be more maj7s and such in there, but this works alright. Try it out.

Standard tuning

INTRO

G#m

VERSE1

Ema j7 = x79897

G#m F#

It was raining on the sun

Ema j7

The ground beneath my feet was crumbling

G#m F#

Day and night had come undone

Ema j7

It was the season of my wandering

PRE-CHORUS

C#7

Somehow, somewhere

You found me there

E

The moment that it all became clear

CHORUS

C#sus2 = x46644

G#m

I was on the edge of a distant world

C#sus2

A shattered life, with no where left to turn

E

Till I saw you there

B

F#

And everything I thought had gone to waste

Ema j7

Was falling into place

G#m F#

Falling into place

VERSE2

G#m F#
It s finally quiet in my head
Emaj7
As I lay the pieces at your feet
G#m F#
It s finally starting to make sense
Emaj7 C#sus2
I guess I found the missing part of me

CHORUS

G#m
I was on the edge of a distant world
C#sus2
E
Till I saw you there
B F#
And everything I thought had gone to waste
Emaj7
Was falling into place
G#m F#
Falling into place

Falling into...

BRIDGE

C#m
...oceans that I almost drowned in
Emaj7 F#
Had to lose it all
C#m Emaj7 F# G#m
Just so I could find out you were there to break my fall

INTERLUDE

F# C#m
In the season of my wandering

CHORUS

G#m
I was on the edge of a distant world
C#sus2
E
Till I saw you there
B F#
And everything I thought had gone to waste

Was falling, falling
G#m
On the edge of a distant world
C#sus2
E

Till I saw you there

B

F#

And everything I thought had gone to waste

E

Was falling into place.
