

Sometime Around Midnight
The Airborne Toxic Event

Intro: B G#m E

B
And it starts sometime around midnight
G#m E B
Or at least thats when you lose yourself for a minute or two
B
As you stand under the bar lights
G#m E B
The band plays some song, about forgetting yourself for a while
G#m E B
And the piano s this melancholy soundtrack for her smile
G#m E
That white dress she s wearing, you havnt seen her for a while
B
But you know, that shes watching
G#m E B
Shes laughing, shes turning. Shes holding her tonic like a cross
G#m E B
The room s suddenly spinning, she walks up and asks how you are
G#m E B
You can smell her perfume, you can see her lying naked in your arms
B
Theres a change in your emotions
G#m E B
All these memories come rushing, like feral waves in your mind
G#m E B
The curl of our bodies, like two perfect circles entwined
G#m E B
You feel hopeless and homeless, and lost in the haze of the wine
Then she leaves with some one you don t know
G#m E B
Bt she makes sure you saw her, she look right at you and bolts
G#m E B
As she walks out the door, your blood boiling, your stomach in ropes
G#m E
Oh and when your friends say, what is it you look like youve seen a ghost

B

Then you walk under the streetlights

G#m E B

And your too drunk to notice, that evryone is staring at you

G#m E B

You just dont care what you look like, the worlds falling around you

G#m

you just have to see her

E

you just have to see her

G#m

you just have to see her

E

you just have to see her

G#m

you just have to see her

B

you know that she ll break you in two.... B
