Another pale moon

Shines like high noon

Midnight never felt so cold alone

It s just that you re uneasy

When you need me

Today is gone

I m the only light that you see

You need someone

I know all you needed was me

Everyday we wake if it takes too long
Just tell me something new
Forget about the sunshine when it s gone
You can say it s right, but it feels so wrong
Just show me something true
Forget about the sunshine
Forget about the sunshine when it s gone

Today is gone
I m the only light that you see
You need someone
I know all you needed was me

Everyday we wake if it takes too long
Just tell me something new
Forget about the sunshine when it s gone
You can think it s right, but it feels so wrong
Just show me something true
Forget about the sunshine
Forget about the sunshine when it s gone

Everyday we wake if it takes too long
Just tell me something new
Forget about the sunshine when it s gone
You can think it s right, but it feels so wrong
Just show me something true
Forget about the sunshine
Forget about the sunshine when it s gone
