The Animals

(intro) D   Am7   D   Am7

       D                      C#m          G
For you, my friend, i d do anything
                   D          C#m
Shine your shoes, anything
                      Em        A       C
Lose your blues, make love to you
                A7(4)  A7  D           Am7  D  Am7
Take you under my wing_____, anything

       D                      C#m          G
for you, my hero, i d do anything
                   D          C#m
Paint your picture, anything
                      Em          A             C
Kiss your photograph even though i know you d laugh
                  A7(4)    A7        D        Am7  D  Am7
Stand beneath your wings_____, oh, anything

       D                          C#m          G
And for you, my love, i would do anything
                       D          C#m
Kiss your feet and everything
                      Em          A         C
Suffer your pain but i d ride your train
                  A7(4)    A7          D        Am7  D  Am7
Spread our tiny wings_____, baby, anything.

(solo) D   C#m   G   D   C#m   Em   A   C   A7(4)   A7
       D   Am7   D   Am7

        D                      C#m          G
And for you, my son, i d do everything
                      D          C#m
Protect your mind from everything
                      Em        A                  C
I could read your lies,   dry tears from your eyes
                A7(4)    A7
Spread your tiny wings_____.

(coda 3:4)
D   Am7
 Anything

                      D           Am7
 Cause everything is anything,

And everything is anything,
                    D            Am7
And everything is anything :  (fadeout)
