

Troubles Somehow
The Audreys

A distinct lack of Audreys music here!

This one is fun!

A bit of a bluesy feel. Dont be afraid to swing it a bit.

I find when it s just me without the band behind me, a bit of blues driver or overdrive goes a long way to fill the gap.

Mute chords for verses and let em ring for chorus to really get some dynamics going.

Very easy song so have fun with it. Listen to the original on the Sometimes the Stars album for some guidance on timing.

Intro: F#m A

A F#m
If youre in the market for some loneliness and heartache

Em A well have I got some good news for you

D F#m
you can get it for a dollar all you gotta do is holler

Em A
I can have it in the post by two

G A
if I could sell all my troubles somehow

Bm D
oh Id have more money than Id know what to do with

Em G
and Id shout all my friends to a night on the town

F#m A
forget whatever had got me down

D F#m Em A
singing whoa

D F#m
if youre shopping for despair dont just get it anywhere

Em A
Ive got the finest stuff around

D F#m
if youre looking out for sorrow I can get more by tomorrow

Em A
I take orders by the pound

G A
if I could sell all my troubles somehow

Bm D
oh Id have more money than Id know what to do with

Em G
Id buy a big bag and Id get real high

F#m A float on into that big old sky

D F#m Em A
singing whoaâ€|
 G A
if I could sell all my troubles somehow
 Bm D
Id have more money than Id know what to do with Em G
and Id buy a big house and a big fancy car
 F#m A
and feel just like a movie star

D F#m Em A
singing whoaâ€|
 G A
if I could sell all my troubles somehow
 Bm D
oh Id have more money than Id know what to do with Em G
and Id tell the whole world how you broke my heart F#m A
and end up right back at the start
