

Black, Blue
The Avett Brothers

Intro 2x: B F#/A# G#m E

B F#/A# G#m E

Nobody will call

B F#/A# G#m E

Not as long as I keep my phone off the line

B F#/A# G#m E B F#/A# G#m E

Not as long as I keep my voice down inside of my mouth

B F#/A# G#m E

But it s getting harder to hide

B F#/A# G#m E

And the brightness of the colors makes it hard to describe

B F#/A# G#m E

And the voices that seem to come from all sides

B F#/A# G#m E

Makes it hard to decide

G#m E B D E

Black, Blue, Her, You

B F#/A# G#m E

I know a woman who said

B F#/A# G#m E

Oh if I could only just turn back the clock

B F#/A# G#m E

When I was still scared and my hair was still dark

B F#/A# G#m E

And my hands were clean

B F#/A# G#m E

But now all my choices are spent

B F#/A# G#m E

And the men that I ve known they don t know what I meant

B F#/A# G#m E

And cupid s arrow is backwards and bent

B F#/A# G#m E

When it s flying for me

G#m E B D G#m E B D E

Black, Blue, Her, You, White, Green, Him, Me

B F#/A# G#m E

Nobody will say

B F#/A# G#m E

Oh what a fine young upstanding man

B F#/A# G#m E

With his ducks in a row and his 50 year plan

B F#/A# G#m E

Complete with an ending

B F#/A# G#m E

But it s getting harder to see

B F#/A# G#m E

And the time between daylight seems longer to me

B F#/A# G#m E

And the person I am and the person I ll be

B F#/A# G#m E

Refuse to meet
