I know you were needing more of me than I gave

G F C
And when I come home, will you still want me to?

C G
When your best friend got married I was off and gone
C G
You said it wasn't a problem, that there was nothing wrong
G
with putting my work, my art, and my songs

before spending time at the wedding
C G
As I listened over the phone-line, you talked and you sounded so sad
C
Alone in a room full of strangers, some dude saying I treat you bad
G
Who is this guy and what does he know?
Apparently more than I do
