[G G]

G D G
I ve never taken this curve

G D G
Driving this fast before

G D Em C
A glowing stop sign, but both lanes are mine

G D G
No seat belts attached to my door

[G G]

G D G
Well my speed meter don t work

G D G
So I m going to guess ninety-five

G D Em C
Well maybe I ll fix it, and maybe I won t

G D G
It depends on my being alive

[G G]

G D G
Well my bottle of bourbon is gone

G D G
It flew away all by itself

G D Em C
So if ever you find it, my photo behind it

G D G
In memory of me on your shelf

[G G]

G D G
Well it s been raining all day

G D G
And it s been raining all night
G D Em C
A slip and slide highway and I m moving sideways
G D G
I m loose, but my steering wheel s tight

[G G]

G D G
Well my sixty-three Ford is a bull
G D G
She s four thousand pounds at least
G D Em C
But metal surrenders when Oak trees meet fenders
G D G
And engines go through the front seat

[G G]

G D G
Well I lost control in the curve
G D G
And a gas line broke in the wreck
G D Em C
I walked from the ashes with just a few scratches
G D G
My crucifix warm on my neck

[G G]

G D G
Well my good Lord was with me tonight
G D G
Just riding beside me tonight
G D Em C
And now we re just talking, we re hitchhiking, walking
G D G
We ll see you in Concord tonight

G D
And now we re just walking
Em C
We re hitchhiking, talking

G
We ll see you
D
In Concord
G C G
