

The Lowering A Sad Day In Greenvilletown The Avett Brothers

Capo 7

(G)If I had known, your (Bm)heart was down that (C)lonely day in (D)Greenville town, (G)Then I would have been (Bm)more concerned but (C)later on I (D)truly learned how (G)it can feel in (Bm)every bone to (C)really see you re (D)all alone

But (Em)I ll (C)kiss your (G)head, when (Em)death (C)finds your (G)bed and you are (C)gone

And if I had seen the way it would be I d hushed your cries when you came to me If I could do what I did to you the same to me then I would love for you to see that I sleep with remorse and regret hangs round my door for ever more.

If I had known the lowering tide, was lowering with the way you felt inside if I had known all hope was gone a broken heart and a broken home That pierced, my lover s past and carved a lonely path... for her to walk

So if ever someone one says to you, life isn t fair, get used to it Then you should say Well it might be…
If folks like you won t let it be but Iâ€™ll kiss your head when death becomes my bed and I am gone
