The Band 1968 (Robbie Robertson) from Big Pink

G7 G C

G C
She reads the leaves and she leads the life
G D
That she learned so well from the old wives
Em D C
It s so strange to arrange it, you know I D wouldn t change it Em D C
But hear me if you re near me, can I just D rearrange it?

G7
The watchman covers me

With his remedy
D
I can t see and it s hard to feel
C G
I think his magic might be real

G7 G C

G G7 C
I can t get to you from your garden gate
G D
You know it s always locked by the magistrate
Em D C
Now he don t care why you cry, he thinks it s
D
just a lie
Em D C D
To get out, I don t doubt that you d make a try

G7

If the good times get you through

I know the dogs won't bother you

D

We'll be gone in moonshine time

C

G

I've got a place they'll never find

G7 G C

C

You know I do believe in your hexagram

D

But can you tell me how they all knew the plan?

Em

C

Did you trip or slip on their gifts you know were just a con?

Em

D

D

You knew it, why'd you do it, I've been hiding in the dawn

G7

Now I must be on my way

I guess you really have to stay

Inside the mission walls

D
