

Evangeline
The Band

Evangeline
Robbie Robertson

[Verse 1]

A
She stands on the banks of the mighty Mississippi
E
Alone in the pale moonlight
E
Waitin for a man, a riverboat gambler
A
Said that he d return tonight

They used to waltz on the banks of the mighty Mississippi
E
Lovin the whole night through
A
He was a riverboat gambler off to make a killin
A
And bring it on back to you

[Chorus]

D A
Evangeline Evangeline
E A
Curses the soul of the Mississippi Queen
E A
That pulled her man away

[Solo]

[Verse 2]

A
Bayou Sam from South Louisian
E
Had gamblin in his veins

Evangeline from the maritime
A
Was slowly goin insane

High on the top of a Hickory Hill
E
She stands in the lightning and thunder

Down on the river the boat was a sinkin
A

