

Is All Depend On You
The Band

artis: Band 29

song title: Is all depend on you

```
E                Bm                #F                A
> i close my eyes to think of another world out of space
> E                Bm                #F                A
> time come now we had to start by ourselves
> E                Bm                #F                A
> is hard to follow all the steps in the city
> E                Bm                #F                A
> don t worry i ll be by your side
> E                Bm                #F                A
>
>
> pre chorus:
> C#                Bm                A
> i hope you never let me down
> C#                Bm                A
> no matter how hard we have to try
>
> chorus:
> E                Bm                #F                A
> is all depend on you (i can t do anything)
> E                Bm                #F                A
> is all depend on you (what the hell i m doing here)
>
```