

Lonesome Suzie
The Band

C E7 Am F Bb C
Lonesome Suzie never got the breaks
C E7 Am G
She s always losing and so she sits and cries and shakes
C E7 Am F Bb C
It s hard just to watch her and if I touch her
Eb Bb C Am G C
Oh, poor Suzie, I m wondering what to do

C E7 Am F Bb C
She just sits there hoping for a friend
C E7 Am G B C
I don t fit here but I may have a friend to lend
C E7 Am F Bb C
Maybe I mistook her but I can t overlook her
Eb Bb C Am G C
Must be someone who can pull her through

C E7 Am F Bb C
Anyone who s felt that bad could tell me what to say
C E7 Am G C
Even if she just got mad she might be better off that way

C E7 Am
And where is all the understanding?
F Bb C
Her problems can t be that demanding
Eb Bb C Am
Why is it she looks my way
G C
Every time she starts to cry

C E7 Am F Bb C
Lonesome Suzie, I can t watch you cry no longer
C E7 Am G
If you can use me until you feel a little stronger
C E7 Am F Bb C
I guess just watching you has made me lonesome too
Eb Bb C Am G C
Why don t we get together, what else can we dooo?
