

Look Out Cleveland
The Band

Intro: C7

verse 1

F C/E
Look Out Cleveland, the storm is coming through
Dm Em F G C
And it s running right up on you
F C/E
Look out Houston, there ll be thunder on the hill
Dm Em F G C7
Bye-bye baby don t you lie so still

G7 C
Was Wednesday evening when first we heard the word
G7 C
It did not come by train nor bird
E7 Am
T was when Ben Pike stepped down to say
F G C
This old town s gonna blow away

F C/E
Look Out Cleveland, the storm is coming through
Dm Em F G C
And it s running right up on you
F C/E
Look out Houston, there ll be thunder on the hill
Dm Em F G C7
Bye-bye baby don t you lie so still

verse 2

G7 C
Chain lightning, frightening as it may seem
G C
Must not be mistaken for just another dream
E7 Am
Justice of peace don t know his own fate
F G C

But he ll go down in the shelter late

F C/E
Look Out Cleveland, the storm is coming through
Dm Em F G C
And it s running right up on you
F C/E
Look out Houston, there ll be thunder on the hill
Dm Em F G C7
Bye-bye baby don t you lie so still

verse 3

G C
Hiding your money won t do no good, no good
G C
Build a big wall, you know you would if you could, yeah!
E7 Am
When clouds of warning come into view
F G C
It ll get the old woman right out of her shoe

F C/E
Look Out Cleveland, the storm is coming through
Dm Em F G C
And it s running right up on you
F C/E
Look out Houston, there ll be thunder on the hill
Dm Em F G C7
Bye-bye baby don t you lie so still

Outro: C7