I would try my finger and I would try my hand
E7

At any fool game in this man s land

A7 E7

But don t you talk about this-a friend of mine,

B7 A7 E7

I ain t never been let down and you d be wastin time.

I would scratch and steal, I would maim a man,
I would even run the bounty across the other country,
So don t you talk about this here friend of mine,
I gave it all of my money, but it makes me feel fine.

E7

Yeah, I know you won t give me no peace of mind,
Try to understand I just wanna feel good all the time.

E7

Don t you talk about a dear old friend of mine,

В7

Well, I know that you are sweet and more than double fine.

Everybody said you oughta marry that rich man down the line, But if I had to make a choice I wouldn t change my mind.

Α7

Honey, you just ain t as sweet as my strawberry wine,
