

To Kingdom Come
The Band

Intro: A E X4

B Forefather pointed to kingdom come

F#
sadly told his only son

A
just be careful what you do

A F#m E
it all comes back on you

B
false witness spread the news

F#
somebody s gonna lose

A
either she or me or you

A F#m E
nothing we could do

A F#m E
so don t you say a word

A F#m E
or repeat a thing you heard

A Abm C#m
time will tell you well

F#m A B
if the truth truly fell

A E
tarred and feathered, yeah,

A E thistled and thorned

A E A E
one or the other he kindly warned

A E
now you look out the window,

A E
tell me what do you see?

A E A E
i see a golden calf pointing back at me

B
Well, they d set their cap for so darn long

F#
waiting for the end to come along

A

holy ghost or on the brink

A F#m E

i d take a choice, swim or sink

B

false witness cast an evil eye

F#

said i cannot tell a lie

A

kings and saints don t bother me

A F#m E

i m not alone, you see

A F#m E

so don t you say a word

A F#m E

or repeat a thing you heard

A Abm C#m

time will tell you well

F#m A B

if the truth truly fell

A E

tarred and feathered, yeah,

A E

thistled and thorned

A E A E

one or the other he kindly warned

A E

now you look out the window,

A E

tell me what do you see?

A E A E

i see a golden calf pointing back at me

Solo: B F# A A F#m E

A E A E A E A E

B F3 A A F#m E X2

FADE OUT