

Return Post
The Bangles

E7

Writing out lines as they come to me

A7 E7

Scratching them out almost immediately

A7 F E7

Don't know what it's done to me

E7

Well it's cold, it's wet, it's been raining all night

A7 E7

And there's a letter I've been trying to write

A7 F E7

Something better waiting somewhere for me

A A7

And one of them is sitting on the wrong coast

E C#

One awaits an answer by return post

F# A

Waiting, waiting, waiting

E7

Try to remember how long it's been

A7 E7

Since there was more to us than paper and pen

A7 F E7

Think how easy it is to conceive

E7

And I know when we're together again

A7 E7

We'll be strangers for an hour and then

A7 F E7

We'll have to figure out if this thing is real

A A7

And one of them is sitting on the wrong coast

E C#

One awaits an answer by return post

F# A

Waiting, waiting, waiting

(solo) E7 A7 E7 F# A E7 A7 E7 F# A E7

E7

Cold and wet and rain all night

A7 E7

There s a letter I ve got to write

A7 F E7

Something better is waiting for me

A A7

And one of them is sitting on the east coast

E C#

One awaits an answer by return post

F# A

Waiting, waiting, waiting

A A7

Take a drink and staring out the window

E C#

Wondering how long this can continue

F# A

Waiting, waiting
