

Ann And Joe
The Barron Knights

Em ///

Long ago...

Em ///

D ///

Outside a chip shop in Walthamstow,

D ///

C ///

Was a young rocker called Greasy Joe,

C ///

B ///

B ///

He put on his helmet, and said "let's go!"

Em ///

He was keen,

Em ///

D ///

Off up the High Street like Barry Sheene,

D ///

C ///

Doing his best to look very mean,

C ///

B ///

B ///

Till he met Ann on a new machine,

E ///

Rrrrummm-ing away together,

E ///

Rrrrummm-ing away in leather,

A ///

A ///

Ann and Joe,

E ///

They passed the Bloody Tower

A ///

At a hundred miles an hour,

E ///

And they were so amazed,

A ///

The Tower Bridge was raised,

E ///

They raced up to the top,

A ///

And found they couldn't stop,

E ///

They flew right off the end,

A ///

And landed in the Thames,

B ///

Hand in hand...
