She Said She Said - The Beatles
From the album Revolver

h = hammer on p = pull off
B = bend
r = release bend

Intro riff :

E-----
B-----2h3--2h3--2h3-5-----
G--2h4-----2--
D-----
A-----
E-----

What I have for the chords is :

A G D A G D
She said I know what it s like to be dead I know what it ...

Basically it s these three chords for nearly the whole song, apart from :

Em A7 D A7 D
When I was a boy e thing was right e thing was right

And that s it.

As for the instruments : one guitar plays the chords, with a cleanish sound

The second electric plays lead parts which sometimes echo the tune, but this guitar also plays the riff that comes after making me feel like I ve never been born :

B-----
G---4b6r4-2--4--0----0---2-----
D-----2---2-----

E-----

So , with these two guitars you have bass - fairly simple stuff here, a lot of root notes except for the when I was a boy bit, where the bass plays on the 1st 3rd and 5th of the chords.

Add drums, and harmony vocals (nearly all singing in 3rds) and you ve got it.

I just recorded a cover of this on 8-track, and stuck pretty much to the original sound. I double tracked that riff to give it more edge, and added a few more vocals, but it sounded very good.

As a point of interest, check out the cymbals on the original.

On the bit with the guitar riff (between verses) there seem to be a lot of loud cymbals - a lot louder than the bulk of the song.
