

Frank And Delores
The Beautiful South

Frank and Delores: B Side Of Good As Gold (Stupid As Mud)
also on Limited Edition of Carry on up the Charts
Brilliantly Sung By Jacqui Abbott, Beautiful

G

Frank loved the blue
Big open skies
Played an old concertina
Singing loola lullabies

D

Frank loved an angel
With black Spanish eyes

C D G

And a smile to remind him of heaven

C

G

Frank s been missing since Delores telephoned

D

G

Scared of his shadow he s bleached to the bone

C

G

Washed in the tears for a love that lays dying

D

G

Wings have a habit of flying

G

Singer and waitress he worked in saloons

Between big red sunsets big yellow moons

D

Tears in his eyes stones in his shoes

C

D

G

Howling Wolf in his blues

Frank s been missing since Delores telephoned

Scared of his shadow he s bleached to the bone

Washed in the tears for a love that lays dying

Wings have a habit of flying

D

Oooh tears in his eyes stones in his shoes

C

D

G

Howling Wolf in his blues