This song should really be played in the key of E to be plucked the same as the recording, but this version will do well for strummers.

Prettiest Eyes
by Beautiful South

transcribed by Rob Matson

E A
Line One is the time

E B A E
when you, you first stayed over at mine.

B A E
And we drank our first bottle of wine.

B A E
Then we cried.

A
Two, we re away,

E B A E
and we both, we both had nowhere to stay.

B A E
Well the bus shelters always okay,

B A E
when you re young.

BRIDGE:

E A
Now you re older and I look at your face,

E

A

Every wrinkle is so easy to place,

E

C#m

And I only write them down just in case

B

You should die.

CHORUS 1:

E

C#m

Just take a look at these crows feet, just look

B

Sitting on the prettiest eyes,

E

C#m

Sixty twenty-fifth of Decembers,

B

Fifty-nine fourth of Julys.

B

Not through the age or the failure children,

E

C#m

Not through the hate or despise.

E

C#m

Take a good look at these crows feet,

E

Sitting on the prettiest eyes

VERSE 2:

Line Three, I forget,
But I think, I think it was our first ever bet,
And the horse we backed was short of a leg --
Never mind

Four, in a park,
And the things, the things that people do in the dark.
I could hear the faintest beat of your heart
Then we did.

Repeat BRIDGE

CHORUS 2:

Just take a look at these crows feet, just look

Sitting on the prettiest eyes

60 25th of Decembers

59 4th of Julys

You can t have too many good times children

You can t have too many lines

Take a good look at these crows feet sitting on the prettiest eyes

E

E

Well my eyes look like a map of the town

E

E

And my teeth are either yellow or they re brown

E

C#m

But you ll never hear the crack of a frown when you are here

E

No you ll never hear the crack of a frown.

Of a frown...
