Shouldve Kepy My Eyes Shut The Beautiful South

#-----# #This file is the author s own work and represents their interpretation of the # #song. You may only use this file for private study, scholarship, or research. # #----# Date: Sun, 23 Jul 1995 11:06:17 -0700 From: misterme@netcom.com (Sir Not Appearing in this Film) Subject: Beautiful South - Should ve Kept My Eyes Shut Should ve Kept My Eyes Shut by Paul Heaton and David Rotheray E C#m E C#m E C#m I should ve kept my eyes shut E But I had to go and peep Е But when you saw what I saw F#m В Well, it s hard just to roll back to sleep I would ve kept me eyes shut But I thought I heard you scream And I ve a penchant for violence You don t seem to find in a dream Α E The scene a little clearer E My father with a rope E And in the cage, centre-stage It s mother who s destined to choke F#m And she choke and we choke On the words that we wish we d not spoke F#m Just when you felt you had someone to trust Eb Up comes the man with a dagger and cloak

I should ve read the novels

Believed every word
But the stories they wrote
Were so different to ones that I d heard

I should ve kept my eyes shut
My mouth should ve closed
But the mixture of vomit and blood
Just crept up through my nose

It became a little clearer
As soon as I awoke
My father stands with rope in hand
A screaming mother kneels in hope

And she hope and we hope
That the words that she said won t provoke
A smile is removed and a petal is crushed
What once was a laugh has turned into a joke

You should ve kept your mouth shut

Lyrics (C) 1990 Go! Discs Music Ltd., used without permission. Please send any corrections to Dylan Salisbury