

The Rocking Chair
The Beautiful South

A C#m/G# D/F# E

Here I walk, here I walk

F#m E/G# D/F# E

Looking for an angel's wings in the den of the hawk

A C#m/G# D/F# E

Here I am, here I am

F#m E/G# D/F# E

With a choice between an also ran and a sunbed tan

A C#m/G#

And you thought you'd found your own little look

B/F# E

How I misjudged, how I mistook

A C#m/G#

And you thought you'd found the style of your hair

D/F# E D/F# E

I guess tonight I'll take, I'll take my troubles to

A

The rocking chair

A B/F# E E7

So I'll take these high heeled shoes

A B/F# E E7

And yes I ll take these traditional views

F#m E A C#m/G#

I ll take this deep despair of a 30 year old square

F#m

To the rocking chair

A C#m/G# D/F# E

Here I sit, here I sit

F#m E/G# D/F# E

Looking for a warming smile in a house of cold wit

A C#m/G# D/F# E

Here I stand, here I stand

F#m E/G# D/F# E

Torn between the balding drunk and no man s land

A/F# C#m/G#

And they ll tell you when you ve reached your peak

B/F# E

Where the wulf-whistle rung there s a deafening shriek

A C#m/G#

Blowing kisses into the air

D/F# E D/F# E

I guess tonight I ll take, I ll take these troubles to

A

The rocking chair

A B/F# E E7

So I ll take these awkward stance

A B/F# E E7

And I ll take this sexless dance

F#m E A C#m/G#

I ll take this deep despair of a 30 year old square

F#m

To the rocking chair

A C#m/G# D/F# E F#m E/G# D/F# E

A C#m/G# D/F# E F#m E/G# D/F# E

A C#m/G#

Am I skinny? A shade too fat?

D/F# E

Mmmm... My friend the cat knows all about that

A

Am I happy?

(Here I sit, here I sit)

C#m/G#

Just a little sad

(Looking for a warming smile in the house of cold wit)

D/F# E

Mmmm... My friend the cat knows all about that

A

Am I skinny?

(Here I walk, here I walk)

C#m/G#

A shade too fat?

(Loooking for an angel s wings in the den of the hawk)
