

Tonight I Fancy Myself
The Beautiful South

Intro:

C F C F C F C F

C F
She d brought along the oranges

C F
He d brought the tea

Dm F C F C F
They d both brought along a sick-bag just in case

The plate of chicken sandwiches
Were lovely they agreed

Dm F C F C F
And I watched him spit the bits into her face

Do you love me like you used to he sighs
Dm G C F C F
I love you twice as much she replies
They were on the train to Venice, where else?

Dm G C F C F
I think tonight I fancy myself

G

[Chorus]

C F
I d rather drink that toast to my own health

C G
I think tonight I d rather love myself

C F
And if you drink that drink to your own health

C G C F C F
I think tonight I d rather love myself

[end Chorus]

Later in the evening
The sun came rolling down

Dm F C F C F
And they talked about their fantasies and fears

Between the heavy breathing
And those lighter licking sounds

Dm F C F C F
I heard him whisper this question in her ear

Would you still love me if I lost my legs?
Dm G C F C F

I d see that you were loved and you were fed
I end up in a car crash almost dead
Dm G C F C F
For richer and for partly severed head

[Chorus]

Am G
The neighbours ask them out but they flatly refuse
Am G
We re saving up for a world-wide cruise
Am G
With a choice between loneliness and lovesick QE2 s
Am Em-G-C F C F
Well tonight I choose - self abuse

A four-pack in the fridge
A good book on the shelf
Dm G C
I think tonight I d rather love myself
