

When I'm 84
The Beautiful South

Intro

E B A A
E B A Asus2
E B A A
E B A Asus2

Verse

E B
Queuing with the old folk
A E
There s an old man with a wicked smile
E B
Not through smug politeness
A E B A Asus2
He s doing it in st-yle, st-yle
Asus2 E B A Asus2
He s doing it in st-yle, st-yle

Pre Chorus

A
No savings book or flannel slacks
E A
No pardon when I heard them ask
E A B
Just a Vodafone and a Filofa-x

E Bm D A E Bm D A
When I m 64, I ll dream on

Verse

E B
They all bore the milkman
A E
Stop him for hours at their front gate
E B
He just sits and thinks
A E B A Asus2
I ll make the bastard wait, wait

Asus2 E B A Asus2
I ll make the bastard wait, wait

Pre-Chorus

 A
No dribbling or incontinence
 E A
No longing for the old sixpence
 E A B
Just smoking weed till age make sense

E Bm D A E Bm D A
 When I m 74, I ll dream on

Verse

E B
They all save for Blackpool
A E
Just for the cheap companionship
E B
Meanwhile he counts pennies
A E B A Asus2
For a different trip, trip
Asus2 E B A Asus2
For a different trip, trip

Pre-Chorus

 A
No smoking pipes and drinking bitter
 E A
No eying up the baby sitter
 E A B
I ll trip up kids and I ll drop my litter

E Bm D A E Bm D A
 When I m 84, I ll dream on
 E Bm D A
 When I m 84, I ll dream on late

Outro

B F#m A E

(I ll dream on)

B F#m A E B F#m A

You re in your nineties, Arthur

E B F#m A E

Be careful with your back

B F#m A E

Exercise your muscles

E B F#m A E

I d rather Jack

E B F#m A E

I d rather Jack

E B F#m A E

Yes, I d rather Jack

E B F#m A E

I d rather Jack

E B F#m A E

Yes, I d rather Jack

E B F#m A E

I d rather Jack

E B F#m A E

Yes, I d rather Jack

E B F#m A E

I d rather Jack...