

When I'm 84
The Beautiful South

Intro

D A G G
D A G Gsus2
D A G G
D A G Gsus2

Verse

D A
Queuing with the old folk
G D
There s an old man with a wicked smile
D A
Not through smug politeness
G D A G Gsus2
He s doing it in st-yle, st-yle
Gsus2 D A G Gsus2
He s doing it in st-yle, st-yle

Pre Chorus

G
No savings book or flannel slacks
D G
No pardon when I heard them ask
D G A
Just a Vodafone and a Filofa-x

D Am C G D Am C G
When I m 64, I ll dream on

Verse

D A
They all bore the milkman
G D
Stop him for hours at their front gate
D A
He just sits and thinks
G D A G Gsus2
I ll make the bastard wait, wait

Gsus2                      D A    G    Gsus2
I ll make the bastard wait, wait

Pre-Chorus

G
No dribbling or incontinence
D                      G
No longing for the old sixpence
D                      G A
Just smoking weed till age make sense

D Am C G                      D Am                      C G
When I m 74,              I ll dream on

Verse

D                      A
They all save for Blackpool
G                      D
Just for the cheap companionship
D                      A
Meanwhile he counts pennies
G                      D A    G    Gsus2
For a different trip, trip
Gsus2                      D A    G    Gsus2
For a different trip, trip

Pre-Chorus

G
No smoking pipes and drinking bitter
D                      G
No eying up the baby sitter
D                      G A
I ll trip up kids and I ll drop my litter

D Am C G                      D Am                      C G
When I m 84,              I ll dream on
D Am                      C G
When I m 84,              I ll dream on late

Outro

A Em G D
 (I ll dream on)
 A Em G D                      A                      Em                      G
 You re in your nineties, Arthur
 D                      A Em G D
 Be careful with your back
 A                      Em                      G D
 Exercise your muscles
 D                      A Em G D
 I d rather Jack
 D                      A Em G D
 I d rather Jack
 D                      A Em G D
 Yes, I d rather Jack
 D                      A Em G D
 I d rather Jack
 D                      A Em G D
 Yes, I d rather Jack
 D                      A Em G D
 I d rather Jack
 D                      A Em G D
 Yes, I d rather Jack
 D                      A Em G D
 I d rather Jack...