Intro:

Yeeaahhh Ooooh Yeeaahhh Ooooh

Vers:

I'm pleased to meet you

I'd love to please you sometime, if you let me

Girl if you need me then you should meet me outside, cause I want you to stay

If I could reach you, I gotta see through your eyes would you let me

Just let me show you and get to know you meantime I will make you stay

You're everything that I've been dreaming of

Chorus:

Hey now, girl don't you wait too late now life is all around you damn and if you run forever you won't get nowhere at all

Hey now, there's no time to waste it's right now your love is gonna save the day

But if you wait forever you won't get nothing at all

You gotta seize the day, you gotta seize the day, seize the day

Vers:

Someday you'll have to let someone into your life won't you let me

I never felt so like I know this is right so won't you come with me

Maybe I'm crazy but this may be the right time, do you feel me

I know you want to so let me love you tonight please don't walk away this could be everything you been dreaming of
