

Dogs Got A Bone
The Beta Band

Intro: D Bm A G (same notes for the verse)

Verse 1

D                    Bm        A                    G
Dog s got a bone,        all of his own
D                    Bm                A                    G
Wednesday morning,    middle of the road
D                                Bm                A                    G
Can t help this feeling,    of feeling so alone
D                    Bm                A                    G (hold it)
Gotta go home now,    dog s got a bone now.

E

Chorus*:

E
Listen you will see, coming on in to me
E
Listen you will see, coming on in to me
E
Listen you will see that we are climbing
E
Listen you will see that we are climbing

*Note: It s just an E all along, but if you want to, you can also play a D, like this:

E                                D
Listen you will see, coming on in to me

Back to the intro.

Verse 2:

Wish you were here, tied to the pier
Words disappear, every time you call me
So won t you come home now
If you re feeling so alone now
Dog s got a bone, all of his own now

Chorus:

Listen you will see, coming on in to me
Listen you will see, coming on in to me
Listen you will see that we are climbing
Listen you will see that we are climbing

Listen you will see, coming on in to me
Listen you will see, coming on in to me

Listen you will see that we are climbing
Listen you will see that we are climbing

Yeah, do, do, do, do
