E
Well, you moved to Colorado

In a suitcase full of lonely
B A A-Ab-G-F#
A longing for the good ol times was here
F#
But now you re back again

And it looks like you found a friend
B
I just bought the bottle for your kid

CHORUS

REPEAT VERSE CHORDS:

You went and dropped the anchor
You were hired as a banker
And you got yourself a home up in the hills
But thunder on the prairie was the only remedy for your ills

But now you re back again
And it looks like you found a friend
My pocketbook is loaded to the gills

JAM JAM JAM (Just repeat Chorus progression)

End Jam w:

REPEAT VERSE CHORDS:

They left you at the station
With your thoughts of immigration
You rode a loaded Greyhound through the night
Cryin like a loon as that Minnesota Moon shining bright

And it looks like you found a friend
The two of us will be soaring like a kite
