written by Chris & Rich Robinson
Performed by the Black Crowes on the album The Southern Harmony & Musical Companion faithfully transcribed by jeremy sarna...

Intro:

Gb Ab Bb B
A Abmin A

Verse:

B A
To lessen my troubles
Abmin
I stopped hanging out with vultures
A
And empty saviours like you
B A Abmin
I wish I had a nickel for every miracle
F#
That you easily tricked me into

Chorus:

E Eb Db B
You can lead a horse to water
Abmin E E Eb Db B
But fate is another matter
B Abmin
So don t you surrender
E
Cause sometimes salvation
F# E Eb Db
In the eye of the storm
F# E Eb Db B
Sister do you want to try and find me

I ve no time for accusations
Or conversations

On all the bad, bad things that you do
Just a note from the jailer
Drugs and the relation
To all the people around you

Chorus

Solo

B

A

I ve kept secret your superstitions

Abmin

And all its twisted wisdom

F#

That I fell into

Chorus

Sister do you even want to try and find me?
