oh canada, the ground is calling fall down and you could let it all down now let s all go home the trains are all lined up, they want to go home and sleep, you can hear the whistle blow it says come on let s go

mmmhhh

oh canada, the plains stretch out for you they make a pathway for you to just come on home a line of boxcars rolling slow lower yourself to the border and then just go through oh canada, the plains spread out before you

you could come on home
