Artist: The Blue Aeroplanes
Track: Talking on the otherphone

from the album Friendloverplane2 and the Boy in the Bubble E.P.

This song is pretty easy. There is an acoustic guitar that plays an Em pattern all the way through. Basically its Em with a your finger taken off the A string and then put back on, and then Em with a high A note added (022200). Listen to the track to get the pattern right. Occasionally it goes to a C for a bit, or to a C and then a G. It s really simple, just listen to it.
