After Hours - the Bluetones

intro : |C |C |F |F |C |C |

F C
How in the world will i make it to work in the morning?
F C
i ve been drinking since we clocked out and now it s 4am
F C
But they re such a generous couple alfredo and pauline,
F C E
When they offer a late night session, you don t want to offend.

Am
The shutters come down
(Am)
and thats what they re for D
we dont want to invite in the law

(D) F C
It s not often the case that we re forced to sacrifice the jukebox.
F C
But the plug always has to be pulled on the quiz machine
F C
So you imbibe all you can cos you re partaking in something forbidden
F C E
And time after time you ll wake up face down in the latrine.

Am
We speak in hushed tones
(Am)
And dim down the lights
D
we re staying after hours tonight

(solo)

F -(stop) C
Where am I now? Where am I now? Where am I now?
F C
I don t remember a thing, I don t remember, remember a thing
F C
Lord only knows what kind of poison i m drinking I can t read the label
F C E
So i ll just dance off my cares like Fred Astaire up here on the table.

Am

The shutters come down

(Am)
