the bobby fuller four - Magic Touch originally this song was recorded by the bobby fuller four but i tabbed it from the cover version by the inciters

D#	C# theres something about your smile
G#	B i swear that it makes me weak and when i m close to you i find that it s hard to speak i act like a child of six and i guess that it shows to well that you got the magic touch and i m caught in your spell you never convinced me that i d be great but of petite size but something happens when i look into your eyes i try to defend myself but to late that i finally see you ve got the magic touch and you cast your spell on me

yeah yeah - they call it magic baby
yeah
yeah - it s more like tragic baby

Bb B
will i surrender to this fate ?
C#m is there no sidedoors to escape that look that you wear so well is enough to make me melt i suddenly find myself in things i ve never felt no use in denying when a child can clearly tell

that you got the magic touch
