We've never tried to learn

C

The language of each other. Now it's my turn.

Chorus:

C

Am

There must be another reason I was acting like I did.

Em

D

The longer apart we sit.

C

Am

The feeling that I thought I'd lost is now stronger than it was before.

Em

D

Because I love you more.

You have said a lot of things I couldn't understand.

Afterwards I have recognized that for each other we were meant.

I hope that you will give us just one more chance.

I simply don't believe in our love's end.
