This is my own interpretation of the song.

Intro: D A C G x s 2

D A C G
First Wednesday morning I saw her there
D A C G
Smilin at me with her blue eyes and curly hair
D A C G
I couldn t wait till next week to make the stop
D A C G
See her at the quick check paper drop.

D A C G x s 4(fast) D A C G x s 2(slow)

D A C G
Every Wednesday we count the papers
D A C G
We d have a laugh at the people in their suits
D A C G D
No-one seemed to notice how she was different
A C G D A C G D A
But I did, and I do yeah I do
C G D A C G D A C G
Woah I knew yeah I knew

D A C G
Another Wednesday came and it seemed she was right
D A C G D
So I wrote her a note that I hope she would like
D A C G
Ohh Kia would you like to go with me
D A C G D
To the boardwalk, what fun it would be
D A C
We ll eat cotton candy and we ll get
G
french fries with vinegar

D A
We ll get a plate of funnel cake and
C G
then we ll go up on the zipper

D A C G
Look out on the ocean and puked it all up
D A C G
All the people would scream

D A C G
We could have a laugh, we could have a laugh, whaddaya say
D A C G D
We could have a laugh, whaddaya say, whaddaya say, whaddaya say

Solo / D A C G x s 4

D A C G
That s what it said in the note
D A C G
Another week, came and she wished she had
D A C G
She just broke up with her fiancée

*D *A
Things were kinda crazy with her
*C *G
but I said I understood

D A
Another week went by and she never called
C G D
But I thought about the way she looked at me
D A C G
And I said to myself.... Maybe

D A C G
I pulled into the quick check at 6 am
D A C G
To see the sun coming up
D A C G D
When I walked in, Kia wasn t there
A C G
Her manager said she quit, she isn t here
D A C G D A C G
Do you want me to help you count the papers
D A C G D
Do you want me to help yoooooooooooo.....

END
