Intro: G

G
I was young and I was stupid I had just turned seventeen

Em
I took my hits on a dumb road trip to Nashville Tennessee

C Em C Em
I packed my antihistamines and tuppaware drums

C Em
A harmonica and a box guitar

D
In a canvas covered wagon stuffed with apples and with guns

G
We quietly slipped across the border into Arkansas

Em
But still we couldn t find what it was we were looking for

C Em C Em
So we trucked on down to try our luck along the Rio Grande

C Em
But I couldn t help but notice how

D
The little things that used to make us happy make us sad

G
But I m glad I hitched my apple wagon to your star

Em
I never would have got here if I followed my heart

C
I didn t think much of it until i took it apart

D

I m glad I hitched my apple wagon to your star

G

We never ever made it down to Nashville in the end

Em

And noone ever signed our stupid country disco band

C

Em

C

Em

However hard we tried it never seemed enough

C

Em

We never did get famous,

D

Still it made us kinda happy and it get me off the drugs

G

And now I m glad I hitched my apple wagon to your star

Em

I never would have got here if I followed my heart

C

I didn t think much of it until i took it apart

D

I m glad I hitched my apple wagon to your star

D

To your star

D

To your star
