[verse]

B
My friend, my friend
E B
When will it be
F#
That I see you again
B
It s all got to end
E B
Be-fore the streets are lined
F#
With graves from end to end
B
My friend, my friend

[verse]

My friend, my friend
Like soldiers in the trenches
You fight back again
And you pay no mind
To the fact that you re being picked-off

One at a time
My friend, my friend

[bridge]

C#m E
And if dignity were gold
B F#
You'd be the wealthiest of men
C#m E
And the courage of a lion
B F#
You've shown time and time a-gain
C#m E
With conviction of the saints
B F#
You've stood and firmly held your ground
C#m E
A-against the horrors of this plague
B F#
And those who'd put you down

[verse]

My friend, my friend
So few in either church or state
Can give the reason why
They won't raise a hand
To stop the suffering or to ease
The pain of the dying
My friend, my friend

[verse]

My friend, my friend
When will it be
That I can talk with you again
I can't find the reason why
That corruption lives
While the good of heart
Must be the first to die
My friend, my friend

[verse]

My friend, my friend
When will it be
That I see you again
When will it be
That I see you again
My friend, my friend
