[Intro] - Bbm C# F# C# Eb F#

Bbm C# F# Bbm
I climbed up a mountain and looked off the edge
Ebm F#
At all of the lives that I never have led
Bbm C# F# Bbm
Theres one where I stayed with you across the sea
Ebm F#
I wonder, do you still think of me?

I carry your image always in my head
Folded and yellowed and torn at the edge
And Iâ€™ve looked upon it for so many years
Slowly Iâ€™m losing your face

Bbm C# G# Eb Bbm
Oh, the ocean rolls us away, away, away
C# G# Eb
The ocean rolls us away

Sixes and sevens we live on jet planes
So many faces I donâ€™t know the names
So many friends now and none of them mine
Forgotten as soon as we meet

All of these moments are lost in time
But youâ€™re caught in my head like a phone on a vine
To forever donâ€™t mend me and I wonder why
Do I wish Iâ€™ve never known you at all?

Oh, the ocean rolls us away, away, away
The ocean rolls us away

Oh, the ocean rolls us away, away, away
The ocean rolls us away

Bbm C# F# Bbm
The sun and the moon, of ocean, of air
Ebm F#
So many voices and nothing is there
Bbm C# F# Bbm

But the ghost of you asking me why.

Ebm F#

Why did I leave?

Oh, the ocean rolls us away, away, away
The ocean rolls us away

Bbm C# G# Eb Bbm

Oh, the ocean rolls us away, away, away

C# G# Eb

The ocean rolls us away

Bbm C# G# Eb

And I lose your hand through the waves
