Tabber:TorrentSurvivor (aka Manowar313)

Into: G

Verse:

G C G
So farewell to the king, Farewell to the throne.

D
These are the strangest times I ve ever known.

G C G
He claims his resignation as power of choice,

Em D
I can hear the death in his voice.

G C G
So down the rabbit hole we sink into this dream,
D
Is there nothing in this world that is as it seems.

G C G
With a looking glass that only can reflect the past,

Em D
This image of freedom will never last.

Chorus:

C
Come all you mad men

G C D
Join in the sound, til they put us underground.

C
Buried deep, buried deep

G
Where the dead men sleep.

C D C G
With bellows and screams, we ll all sing

C D G
So loud we drown them out.

Verse 2:

G C G
Left in the hands of the cruelty of fate,
D
On a chess board that s never known checkmate.
G C G
Annihilation s knocking at my front door,
Em D
The scales had to make sure to even the score.

Chorus:

C
Come all you mad men
G C D
Join in the sound, til they put us underground.
C
Buried deep, buried deep
G
Where the dead men sleep.
C D C G
With bellows and screams, we ll all sing
C D G
So loud we drown them out.

/Solo\

Verse 3:

G C G
A detailed dissertation of what kills and destroys,
D
How much of what we say just turns to white noise?
G C G
Regardless I ll declare all remarks and jeers,
Em D
If only to fall on deaf ears.

Chorus:

C
Come all you mad men
G C D
Join in the sound, til they put us underground.

Buried deep, buried deep

G

Where the dead men sleep.
