

Camellia
The Buried Beds

A# Dm A# Dm (111333)

A# Dm (111333) Am oh i would follow you down, so far

Am Em

watching you

tracing a thousand footsteps

F Em G

which one will bring you closer to me?

life goes on though i am trying not to is it too much to ask for your dreams?

F G C G Am

camellia you re a flame in my heart and i just can t live without you

i don t see much in this world but i see my arms around you once in a while i set the table for two visions of days i never knew tired eyes up late, dreaming lifetimes wandering through october blue

and i would follow you down, so far
