

Drug Store Truck Drivin Man
The Byrds

The Byrds Drug Store Truck Drivin Man written by Roger McGuinn
Gram Parsons

[tab]D A7 D
He s a drug store truck drivin man he s the head of the Ku Klux Klan[/tab]
[tab] Em A7 D
When summer rolls around he ll be lucky if he s not in town[/tab]
[tab]D A7
Well he s got him a house on the hill[/tab]
[tab] G D
He plays country records till you ve had your fill[/tab]
[tab] Em
He s a farmer s friend he s an all night D.J.[/tab]
firemans
[tab] A7 D
But he sure does think different from the records he plays[/tab]
[tab]D A7 D
He s a drug store truck drivin man he s the head of the Ku Klux Klan[/tab]
[tab] Em A7 D
When summer rolls around he ll be lucky if he s not in town[/tab]

(Solo)

[tab]D A7
He don t like the young folks I know[/tab]
[tab] G D
He told me one night on his radio show[/tab]
[tab] Em
He s got him a medal he won in the war[/tab]
[tab] A7 D
He weighs 500 pounds and he sleeps on the floor[/tab]
[tab]D A7 D
He s a drug store truck drivin man he s the head of the Ku Klux Klan[/tab]
[tab] Em A7 D
When summer rolls around he ll be lucky if he s not in town[/tab]
[tab]D A7
He s been like a father to me[/tab]
[tab] G D
He s the only D.J. you can hear after three[/tab]
[tab] Em
I m an all night musician in a rock n roll band[/tab]
[tab] A7 D
And why he don t like me I can t understand[/tab]
[tab]D A7 D
He s a drug store truck drivin man he s the head of the Ku Klux Klan[/tab]
[tab] Em A7 D
When summer rolls around he ll be lucky if he s not in town[/tab]

[tab] A7 G G/F# G/E D
He ll be lucky if he s not in town[/tab]

This one s for you Ralph

Copyright @ 1969 Blackwood Music Inc./McHillby Music Publishing Co.
From the "Dr Byrds and Mr Hyde" LP Columbia Records 1969