The Byrds Long Live The King written by David
Crosby

[tab]Em Bm G D
The first thing that they tell you about is that you will be king[/tab]
[tab]Em G D
A priest at least they tell you and then that everything will be[/tab]
[tab] A
alright at last[/tab]
[tab] Em
You will finally be cast into your rightful throne[/tab]
[tab] Bm Em
They got it all down cold[/tab]
[tab]Em Bm G D
Next thing that they tell you is not to be afraid[/tab]
[tab] Em G D
You think you re better than the others somewhat fine and brave[/tab]
[tab] A
They lead astray you could be up there all alone[/tab]

A star they say a million miles away from home
[tab] G F Em
An empty space is that the place you wanted[/tab]
[tab]Em Bm G D
The last thing that they tell you about they ask you will it hurt[/tab]
[tab] Em G D
They said sell what you can boy get out while the getting s good[/tab]
[tab] A
And they whisper in the evening all around town[/tab]
[tab]A
Oh humpty dumpty the king is falling down[/tab]

The Byrds Things Will Be Better written by Chris Hillman
 Dallas Taylor

[tab]G D
 Things will be better now[/tab]
 [tab]C D G
 Don t ask me why don t ask me how[/tab]
 [tab] D
 And both of us feel the same way[/tab]
 [tab] C D G
 What we re feeling inside we just can t seem to say[/tab]
 [tab] A
 Cause misunderstanding is the cause of it all[/tab]
 [tab] D
 Take you to the top just to watch you fall[/tab]

[tab]G D
Some time it s lonely and cold[/tab]
[tab] C D G
When you re so far away from home[/tab]
[tab] D
Confusion can lead you astray[/tab]
[tab] C D G
It s just a terrible price to pay[/tab]
[tab] A
I bought you some books I dressed you up real fine[/tab]
[tab] D
Go and live your life just let me live mine[/tab]
