The Byrds One Hundred Years written by Gram Parsons

G F C G F C D

```
[tab]G      C      D
One hundred years from this day will the people still feel this way[/tab]
[tab]      G
Still say the things that they re saying right now[/tab]
[tab]      C
Everyone said I d hurt you they said that I d desert you[/tab]
[tab]D      C      G
If I go away you know I m gonna get back some how[/tab]
[tab]D      C      G
Nobody knows what kind of trouble we re in[/tab]
[tab]D      C      D
Nobody seems to think it ll all might happen again[/tab]
```

G F C G F C D

```
[tab]G      C      D
One hundred years from this time will anybody change their minds[/tab]
[tab]      G
And find out one or two things about life[/tab]
```

But people are always talking

```
[tab]C
You know they re always talking[/tab]
[tab]D      C      G
Everybody s so wrong that I know it s gonna work out fine[/tab]
[tab]D      C      G
Nobody knows what kind of trouble we re in[/tab]
[tab]D      C      D
```

Nobody seems to think it ll all might happen again[/tab]
