А

Good morning Joan

Α

F#m

Now pick up your phone D It was bad but just a dream

Ε

 \mathbf{E}

And you are remembered

Put on something pretty Go back to the city In town the sky s just space No star light in your face

Fill: A E F#m D A E

Listen to Eve She s got stuff up her sleeve to her there s no excuse You use before you get used

Or talk to Louise She knows all about treason She got lost in Early May And now it s December Chorus: F#m E D I d call on you if I could F#m Е Α If you were less like me, I would Good morning Joan Did you wake up alone Did you dream you woke up happy With a phone book full of names Just Forget about Mary She says everything s scary she got locked inside her skin Get near her, she ll drag you in Chorus: F#m E D I d call on you if I could F#m E If you were less like me, I would D Α E Save you from this, if I could Е D Α If I were less like you, God knows I would D Α Е Save you from this, there is always shit D Α E But you re all just like me so I quit My name is yours Can I sleep on your floor See my heroes changed their minds And I lost my numbers

Outro: (A E F#m D A E) x2 End on E
