

At The End Of a Song
The Carpenters

C
They tell me
Dm/C
Somewhere this life isn't crazy
G/C
But I've traveled the world far and wide
C
And I say they're wrong

Don't sell me
Dm/C
Stories that music's a lady
F G
It's not when the singer's alone
C
At the end of a song

Em
(*) At the end of a song
F
There's no one
Em F
After the last note is played
Em F
Only the memory stays
Gm7(b5)/F
Then even that fades away
Gm7/F F F7
And there's nothing so hard
Bb/F Bbm/F
As convincing your heart
F/C C7sus4 F
That you should start singing again

Solo da Introdução
C
You told me
Dm/C
Nothing could change perfect lovers
G/C
But like every promise you made
C
It broke before long

It's lonely

Dm/C

Falling away from each other

F

G

But we've come to the last of your words

C

And the end of a song

Repeat (*)
