Listen to the song to get the timing right.

F Gm
I was in a plane to Panama

F
And a fly landed on her thigh

Eb
And I thought I brushed it off quite brashly

G
I introduced myself

Bb
And she said her name was sky.

F Gm
A simple Hi and I could tell

F
That her plainness was well seamless

Eb
And somewhere deep inside

Bb Bb
She drove a calm and weightless determination

F, Gm, Eb, Bb

C
And to what lands her mind would travel

Dm G
I don t know but I was so curious

Bb
I had to keep on thinking of her floating through the clouds Yeah

F Gm
I asked her whether she enjoyed being in the air

Eb Bb
And airily she answered with an accent so careful

Bb
I could feel each syllable while

F G#
I love things that seem impossible

Eb Bb
I love things that seem impossible

F G#
Well I love things that seem impossible

Eb Bb
And I love things that seem impossible Yeah

Chorus:

F, G#, Eb, Bb (repeat 9 times to same rhythm)

And to what lands her mind would travel

Dm G
I don t know but I was so curious

F Bb
I had to keep on thinking of her floating through the clouds Yeah
