

I'll Sing A Hymn You Came To Me
The Charlatans

A C#m
I'll sing a hymn
D A
To praise you all
F#m
I found the lord
D A
And he came to my home
A C#m
I'll paint the ladder
D A
I sail the breeze
F#m D A
I am so very different to all of these
C#m D
You came to me,
C#m D
And I took you in,
C#m D Bm
I've been in trouble ever since back then
C#m D
I've been a bum
C#m D
I've been a few
C#m D Bm
But I don't wanna leave this world without you

Verse 2 same chords as first

You play the black and the red turns up
You can't get all your answers from your favourite cup
Life is a moment
an apple that's bruised
I'm giving up more than my heart can lose

Chorus 2

You came to me when I needed you the most
We all like to cover up our wounds with salt
I've been a bum
I've been a few
But I don't wanna leave this world without you

Verse 3

I found my love five years ago
You came to me and you found my soul

You came to me, my only friend
You took care of my suitcase then

Chorus 3

You came to me,
And I took you in,
I've been trying to finish before I begin
I've been a bum
I've been a few
But I don't want to live in this world without you
